

DSC Convention FAQs

1. Will I be able to forfeit both years in Atlanta and come back as an exhibitor in 2028 when you return to Texas?

Unfortunately, we will not be able to hold your spot for 2 years. If you decide not to return for 2026 and 2027, you will forfeit your exhibitor status and return to the waitlist.

2. If I downsize my space, will I be able to expand again once you return to Texas?

Yes, we will work with all exhibitors on expansions request based on space availability for future conventions.

3. I have already submitted my deposit for 2026, but I would like to defer my participation to 2027. Can I roll the funds as my 2027 deposit?

Yes, you will be able to roll deposits already made to the 2027 Convention. However, you will need to notify DSC using the link provided to communicate your decision on which year you will be opting out.

4. I have already submitted my application for 2026, and plan to attend. Is there still anything I need to do?

If you submitted your application and deposit based on the old dates and times, you will need to acknowledge the contract modification that was sent to you via email.

5. What are the show dates and locations for the next 5 years?
